CONNELLSVILLE, PA., WEDNESDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 10, 1913.

COUNCIL'S FIRST BUDGET CARRIES $19,000 TO BE SPENT TO APRIL 1

Appropriation Estimate is Offered to Run the City Until the Fiscal Year Begins.

ELECT FLOTO CITY TREASURER

A. B. Hood NAMED Controller and is Directed to Make an Immediate Audit of Books Long Neglected in Devoted Principally to Finance.

It will cost the city approximately $19,000 to run its affairs until April 1. This was the result of a 24-hour session of council last night when the first budget was prepared. Estimates were largely appropriated at the data at hand made it impossible for the new councilmen to do more than this. It was said that the experience they will have with the first appropriation measure will make it possible to cause matters more accurately when the annual budget is prepared for the fiscal year beginning April 1.

Although the councilmen voted to spend $19,012.30 in the next three months or more, the figure only represents the limit of expenditures within that period. It is found that the sum estimated is too large, the balance will not be used. On the other hand, it will be impossible to spend a cent more than is appropriated. Owing to the fact that the councilmen have not held a session within the amount specified, and expend only the amounts stated for certain purposes, efforts were made to make a appropriation sufficiently large to meet emergency.

It was a late hour, and most of it fell upon Superintendent John L. Gane of the department of accounts and finance. Hereafter the heads of the various departments will be required to submit their own estimates. The total does not include interest on bonds or the payment of bonds which may mature. These are handled by a sinking fund commission, which will probably be created at the next meeting. The appropriation measure was introduced and passed on its second reading. It will be passed finally at the meeting next Monday evening.

After discussing finance and passing several ordinances finally, council adjourned. An important position and the best of the department of the organization, from a patronage standpoint, was decided on by the election of E. R. Floto as city treasurer. Mr. Floto at present the borough treasurer. As city treasurer he will have the collection of taxes and other revenues, his duties being considerably enlarged in scope. At the same time the council voted to advertise for bids from the banks for handling both the general and sinking funds, with the provision that the city of the funds to be awarded the highest bidder for each bond in the sum of $20,000 for the general fund and $20,000 for the sinking fund, will be required.

Alex B. Hood was elected controller to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Squire A. G. Bixler, now the city clerk. Controller Hood was directed to make an immediate audit of the borough books and report as soon as possible. J. C. Whitely was also an applicant for the position.

The only councilman to have a report was Captain Gane of public accounts and finance. He made an extensive report in connection with his appropriation estimate. He reported that during the fiscal year of the borough ending last March, the last to be audited, warrants were issued amounting to $71,358.65, that $4,000 had been issued in the form of certificates of indebtedness, and that at the close of that year there were accounts payable totaling $18,715.19. For far could be found from an examination of the books, during that portion of the following borough year, ending December 31, warrants for $24,974.37 had been issued, and certificates of indebtedness which totaled $14,002.56. There were accounts outstanding amounting to $20,897.32, the largest of these being $15,804.48 which is owing the West Penn, and $4,454.92 owing the Connelville Water Company.

All of the outstanding certificates of indebtedness, dating back to October 24, 1910, total $31,459.60. Captain Gane reported that a rough estimate of the outstanding unfunded debt of the borough is $54,282.92. There are receivable items, some good and others doubtful, to the extent of $12,188.72, with prospects of the mayor's collections averaging $1,000 up to April 1, and a total of $12,868.14 in the bank. This would make, he said, approximately $47,000 in accounts receivable up to April 1, providing it can be collected.

Captain Gane reported that bids for a minute book were regarded as entirely too high and he is seeking lower estimate. The first bids opened were for printing and advertising. Both The Courier Company and the Connelville News Publishing Company quoted 18 cents a line for the first insertion and 12 cents a line for each subsequent insertion.

None of the other heads of departments had any report and the body then went into the committee of the whole to consider the budget.

There was much guesswork in making out the budget. Under public safety, three positions are provided for, although it is doubtful whether they will be created at this time. They are the inspectors of plumbing, building and boilers. Other items were approximated, but the councilmen be-

The matter was referred to Superintendent John Duggan of the department of public parks and recreation. Upon motion of Hooper, a resolution was adopted directing the city clerk to request that the county commissioners make an inspection of the Trough bridge to determine whether it is in a safe condition. Mr. Hooper called attention to statements that the bridge is unsafe in some respects, largely due to neglect.

It was after 11 o'clock before council adjourned to meet again next Monday night.

93 YEARS UNDER ONE ROOF

"Aunt Janie" Still Lives in House Her Father Built.

UNIONTOWN, Dec. 10.—Ninety-three years' residence under one roof is the record of "Aunt Janie" Johnson, who celebrated her birthday this week at her home in the McCormick addition. The house where she lives is one of the landmarks of Uniontown. It was built by her father, Abner Springer, in 1820 and is of heavy logs and weatherboarded.

Helping Aunt Janie celebrate her birthday was her lifelong friend, Mrs. Julia Bierer, who is past 85 years of age. "Aunt Janie" is fond of pie, dessert and all kinds of "goodies." The dinner consisted of chicken, mashed potatoes, apple sauce, peaches, blackberry pie, cake and coffee.

"I want to be a good many parties when I was young," said Aunt Janie, "but never danced a step in my life. In politics I'm an old Jackson Democrat, but wouldn't vote if I could, because I don't think it's a woman's place to vote."

Major Warm Boys.

Elmer Hanne, George Kerfoot and Carl Raymond, boys between 14 and 18 years of age, were arraigned before Mayor Marietta last night for disorderly conduct on information of Jacob Ginzler. They were discharged with a warning not to get in trouble again, the mayor threatening to send them to a reformatory.

Jailed for Stealing Brass. Charged with stealing brass from the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, Jack O'Leary, Edward Zimmerman were sent to jail after a hearing before Squire Rottger last night. Chief of Police Rottger took them to Uniontown this morning. The latter was called as a witness in the Lee Scott murder case.

EXODUS OF FOREIGNERS NOT CONFINED TO COKE REGIONS

Reports from Pittsburgh District Tell Industrial Depression Cause of Thousands Leaving Weekly.

The exodus of foreigners, which has been noted several times in the last month, is not from the Connelville region alone. Reports from the Pittsburgh district are to the effect that thousands are leaving each week, bound for New York and other seaboard cities over the various coasting railroads. It is estimated that 5,000 Italians alone have left the Pittsburgh district. Twenty-five men left Connelville last night for New York, over the Baltimore & Ohio railroad.

Until a month or six weeks ago demand for second-hand transportation over the railroads was very light, evidently because the foreign workers preferred to postpone their trips to the "old country" until work became slack. Now the day coaches are crowded with men and women, who usually return earlier in the year.

Industrial depression which is being felt very keenly at this season of the year is the cause of the exodus. Foreigners employed on road work last year found jobs in industrial plants. Now many of them are closing down and the men are idle. They prefer to go back to Europe during the slack time, for living is cheaper, and they all retain a longing for the "old country."

However, they keep in close touch with industrial conditions in the United States and when things boom again they will come trooping back.

NESTRAZAT FOR SENATE

Washington News Service With Opinion.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Representative A. Mitchell Palmer for Governor and Judge R. L. McCormick for United States Senator will be the Democratic ticket in Pennsylvania next fall, according to the predictions of some of the Democratic members of Congress.

It is believed by them that Palmer will accede to the demand that he be the ticket, and it is stated that the friends of Judge McCormick have an understanding with state leaders that he is to oppose Senator Penrose for the seat in the Senate.

There was a meeting here yesterday of State Chairman Roland E. Morris, Vance McCormick, Pittsburgh and Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Blakely and Representative Palmer, at which the situation in the state was thoroughly canvassed.

ALL IMMIGRATION STOPPED

British Columbia Labor Market is Congested.

VICTORIA, B. C., Dec. 10.—An order-in-council promulgated yesterday by the British Columbia Government prohibits until March 31 the entry to the province of all artisans and laborers. The order is not restricted to any particular race of people.

The reason for the action is the congested condition of labor on the Pacific Coast. The matter was brought to a head by the arrival of the Hindustani, a ship from India, which was carrying a large number of laborers.

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 10.—The use of the poison needle in securing girls for the white slave traffic was termed a "foolish fallacy" and entirely impracticable, by Dr. E. E. Sable, police surgeon of this city.

According to Doctor Sable, if a hypodermic needle were used to drug a girl, the exact resistance would break the delicate point and render it useless.

General Manager on Inspection Trip, Indicating Extension.

HE VISITS THE COKE REGION

Party Spends Night in Uniontown Where Conference is Held With J. V. Thompson, President to Conclude With B. & N. Lines Contingents.

That the Pennsylvania railroad will shortly begin construction into Greene county for the development of that field was indicated yesterday by General Manager E. C. Long during his visit to Uniontown. The railroad officials are today inspecting the new Buckhannon and Northern railroad, in which the Pennsylvania has an interest, although its operation will be mainly in the hands of Pittsburgh & Lake Erie officials.

Although making no definite statement concerning the plans of the Pennsylvania in regard to Greene county, Mr. Long indicated that the opening of a big tract recently obtained by the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Company from J. V. Thompson, head of his associates would have an important bearing on the matter.

Mr. Long held a day conference with J. V. Thompson and it is believed that Greenough's management some sort of a plan will be the result of the visit.

LONG STICKS TO HIS TALE GRILLED IN MURDER TRIAL

Somerset Man Maintains That He Shot to Protect Himself; Little New Testimony.

Special to The Courier.

SOMERSET, Dec. 10.—The prosecution failed to shake the testimony of Joseph Long, on trial here for the murder of Carl Phillips, an Italian, who he alleges was intimate with his wife. Long took the stand yesterday and was cross-examined today.

Other witnesses testified for the defense, and the impression prevails that the accused man will be acquitted. Little new testimony was brought out when the jury was told that Long shot to protect himself.

The most damaging testimony against Long was that of James Sampwell, the Italian who was delivered by Phillips the day he was killed, and who was also shot by Long. Sampwell declared that Phillips drove to the side of the road to let Long cross a bridge, and that Long began firing. He declared that Phillips was shot in the back and that although he begged to be spared, Long shot him also.

The Lee Scott murder case will probably be taken up some time tomorrow.

GETS MISSING FOREIGNER

Constable Makes His Discharge Funds Taken From Geneva.

After a search by several weeks, Constable J. W. Mitchell yesterday located Dominick Delagrosso, an Italian, at Seward, near Johnstown, and secured $44 which several of his countrymen accused him of embezzling from them about a month ago. Delagrosso was also compelled to pay the costs of the case.

John Fuchiano swore out the information against Delagrosso, alleging that he was entrusted with $44 representing the savings of three other Italians and which he disappeared with about a month ago.

The search for Delagrosso involved quite a little detective work by Constable Mitchell, for Seward is a little out-of-the-way place in which the fugitive evidently felt he was entirely safe.

Byron Hostettler, the 15 year old boy who was driving the carriage in which Struble and Miss Jackson and her baby were seated, proved a convincing witness. He told an entirely different story from that given before the coroner's jury, and in explanation of his contradictory statements declared that he had lied at the inquest, telling a story that he manufactured himself.

The boy's story of the shooting was a clear account of accidental killing, but at the coroner's inquest he declared it was a case of deliberate murder. The boy's testimony was in substance as follows: Returning from Massena on the evening of October 7, Miss Jackson demanded of Struble that he marry her. He refused declaring that he had "been there once before and didn't intend to try it again." A short distance from the water trough at what is known as Dark Hollow, the woman drew a revolver out of a satchel. Struble, however, grasped it and threw it out into the road. Then he jumped out and recovered it. She also got out and ran to Struble, reliving him by the coat. Then she grasped the handle of the shooting and pulled the trigger. The bullet struck him in the head. As Struble drew away the weapon was brought down to the level of her face and a shot rang out. Hostettler swore that this was the true account of the shooting and refuted the other stories he had told concerning it.

When the boy was put on the stand he caused a sensation by declaring that his story at the inquest was given because Rufus Jackson, his uncle, had instructed him to do so, so as to hang Struble. Later he told District Attorney Shelby that he had been instructed by Attorney McKean of the defense, but when the latter began cross-examination, the boy exclaimed McKean entirely.

Mrs. Elizabeth Jackson, mother of the murdered woman, and Rufus Jackson, the uncle, were also called before the case was adjourned for the day. The latter denied having instructed the boy.

FOREIGNER PLEADS GUILTY TO ATTACK ON YOUNG WOMAN

Abandons Defense After Evidence Against Him is Presented; Three Youths Convicted.

Special to The Courier.

UNIONTOWN, Dec. 10.—After hearing the evidence against him, Ignatz Dobrynky entered a plea of guilty to an attack upon Miss Alice Connolly of Leisnering No. 2. The young woman was the principal witness against him. She declared that her identification was positive. Other evidence was admitted. When the commonwealth rested, the prisoner, on advice of his counsel, Attorney C. D. Clark, entered his plea of guilty.

The jury in the case of James Betts, John Jaynes and Fred Mercer found them guilty of robbing Jacob Hardwick, a Continental yard boss, and Judge Van Swearingen immediately sentenced them to three years in the workhouse. A previous jury disagreed, this being the second time the three were tried at this term of court.

The Lee Scott murder case will probably be taken up some time tomorrow.

With so much grippe prevalent this winter a few words of advice regarding its cause and treatment will not be out of place.
Grippe is an infectious disease easily taken when the system is in a tired or run down condition. The best means of prevention are to keep the blood in good healthy condition and if the system gets into a weak run down condition, take Vinol our delicious cod liver and iron tonic.
A lady from Long Branch, N. J., says: "Grippe left me in a nervous, weak condition. I run down condition. After taking three bottles of Vinol I am better and stronger than I have been for years and I cheerfully recommend Vinol to all who have suffered from the grippe and need strength."
